

Caribou Ecology & Recovery

Webinar Series

Date	Presenter	Presentation Title
Feb - 01	Steve Wilson	Using causal analysis to advance caribou recovery research and policy
Feb - 15	Paula Bentham	Habitat restoration: why Indigenous partnerships matter
Mar - 01	Ryan Brook	Collaborative research and monitoring of migratory Eastern Cape Churchill caribou: linking Wapusk National Park and an Indigenous Conservation Protected Area
Mar - 15	Kyle Lochhead	Linking woodland caribou abundance to forestry disturbance in southern British Columbia, Canada
Mar - 29	Leo Lepiano	Beyond P - Values: TK as a means to a post - Cartesian epistemology; or from monitoring to management
Apr - 12	Cole Burton	Opportunities and challenges in using camera traps to inform caribou conservation: insights from northeastern Alberta
Apr - 26	Susan Leech, Lori Cyprien, Brian Fung & Lindsay Wong	Athabasca Chipewyan First Nation and Mikisew Cree First Nation Tâdzié/Atihk Stewardship Plan
May - 10	Matthew Pyper, Jesse Tigner, Jason Barrie & Jeff Malbeuf	Testing operational innovations to maximize linear restoration outcomes: a field study in northeastern Alberta
May - 24	Frances Stewart	Forecasting climate-sensitive landscape change reveals habitat shifts and population uncertainty for northern boreal caribou
Jun - 7	Eric Neilson	Testing the efficacy of linear restoration for caribou recovery in the Birch Mountains, Alberta Partnering for Restoration Success